

PMP®/CAPM® Exam Prep Course

Brought to you by: FRESNO STATE
Craig School of Business

About the Course:

This course will prepare you to take the new Project Management Professional® (PMP) exam, which places a greater emphasis on the agile approach to managing projects than the previous exam. It will prepare you to pass both the PMP and CAPM exams. The program includes an extensive overview of the three project management domains: People, Process, and Business Environment, and will help you hone your expertise to a razor sharp edge during our comprehensive review of the three test domains. This course satisfies the 35-contact hours requirement you need to qualify to take the PMP exam. Each participant will attend 18 hours (either in-person attendance at California State University, Fresno, OR virtual attendance via zoom), followed by 18 hours of tracked online sessions.

To Learn more about this course, you can also refer to the videos on this site: Here

To sit for the exam, a person with a bachelor's degree or higher must have at least 4,500 hours experience leading and directing project tasks in the last 36 months. If you do not hold a bachelor's degree but have a high school diploma or Associates degree, you must have at least 7,500 hours experience leading and directing project tasks in the last 60 months.

About the Instructor:

Mark Ward, Ph.D., PMP, CEO of Grail LLC, is a retired US Air Force officer, with many years of practical project and program management experience. He has several technical certifications, numerous scholarly publications, and years of teaching experience. He has conducted events via electronic means as well as in a more traditional face-to-face environment. He has also been an invited speaker at numerous venues to discuss many topics of interest in the public and private sector. He is a former PMI Specific Interest Group Vice-Chair for Professional Development.
